YORK Parts: General Information

YORK Part Numbers

The current automated part numbering system is based on a 3-5-3 digit system with a single letter replacing the second dash (-) if the part number is backed-up by a drawing (A, B, C, D, E, K, L, M, or N) or bill of material (T).

000-00000-000

000-00000D000

The first digit of the part number is somewhat descriptive in that it denotes whether the part is considered to be a final assembly, sub-assembly, or an individual piece.

"0" Individual piece part as purchase or manufactured (was "P" suffix)

"2" Same as "0" except adjusted or modified, but no material added

"3" Sub assembly (was "S" suffix)

"4" Final assembly (was "F" suffix)

"6" Same as "4" but designated for service

The last three (3) digits are also an important part of the number and must be included.

The following is included as a guide in converting part numbers as printed in the older parts lists to the current automated numbers.

Example A: Parts List: 21-405PK
 Price List: 021-00405-000

Example D: Parts List: 62-50003C14

Each priced item has a code number indicating the unit of measure that applies to the states price. These code numbers can be interpreted as follows:

EA = Each

FT = Foot

GL = Gallon

LB = Pound

RL = Roll

Shipping Weight

If information is available, it is shown in tenths of a pound. (Also in this column there are reference numbers for substitutions "SUB. REF. CODE")

Remanufactured Parts

Remanufactured compressors and some electronic parts listed in this catalog are remanufactured to original factory specifications. However, while all parts are not necessarily new parts, all parts will carry the same warranty as if new.

The remanufactured compressor "EXCHANGE DEPOSIT" is "net" and not subject to a multiplier.
